

Quiz #5 - Mill, Kant, Anderson

1. Utility Theory is specifically grouped under the heading of which larger theory:
 - a. Deontology
 - b. Consequentialism
 - c. Virtue Ethics
 - d. Descriptive Ethics
2. Kant believes that we should pay no attention to:
 - a. What others think
 - b. Universalized Maxims
 - c. Intentions
 - d. Consequences
3. T/F: An imperative is pretty much the same as a command
4. What is Mill's theory of utility?
 - a. a theory which maximizes the most total happiness for society
 - b. a theory which maximizes pleasures of the body amongst society
 - c. a theory which maximizes the most external pleasure for society
 - d. a theory which maximizes the most virtue for society
5. T/F: Kant believes that Ethics and Mathematics are very different spheres of study
6. Mill argues there are different types of pleasure. He states that Epicurean philosophy did indeed differentiate between two types of pleasure:
 - a. Purposeful and Irrelevant
 - b. Bodily and Mental
 - c. Emotional and Rational
 - d. Physical and Supernatural
7. Deontology, according to Kant, is a theory of ethics which focuses on:
 - a. The consequences of an action
 - b. The overall picture of one's life
 - c. The intentions or means of an action
 - d. The scientific observations of an action
8. How many formulations of the Categorical Imperative are there?
 - a. 1
 - b. 2
 - c. 3
 - d. 4
9. BONUS: Elizabeth Anderson puts forth a _____ theory of ethics:
 - a. Intersectional
 - b. Derivative
 - c. Instructional
 - d. Pluralistic